

FUTURE CONTINUOUS

& Future Perfect

Author: Katarzyna Adamska

Future Continuous

subject + will + be + verb + -ing

This time tomorrow

This time next week

While

When

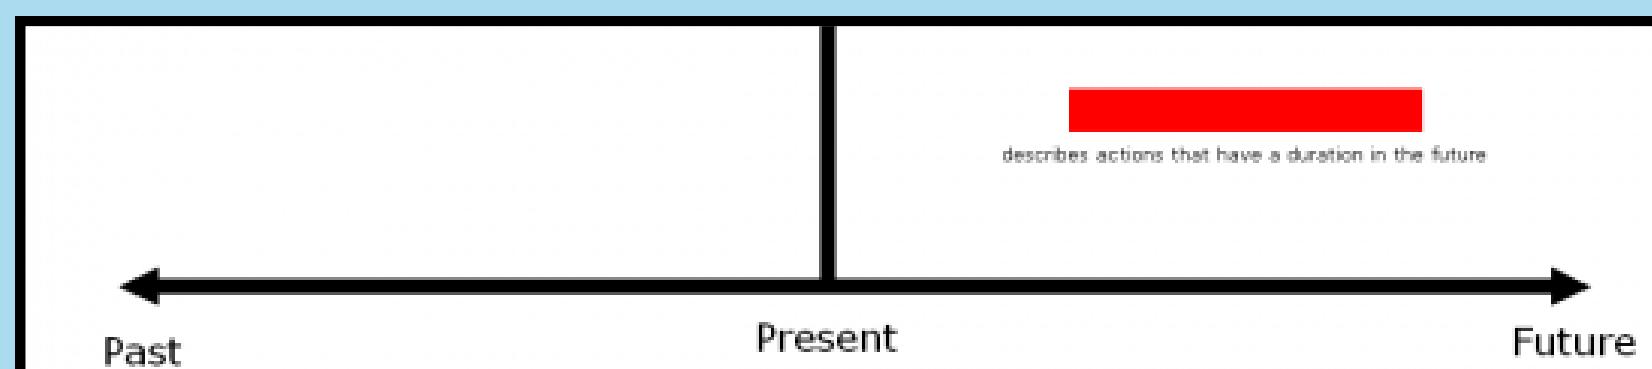

Next month/week

During

In the afternoon

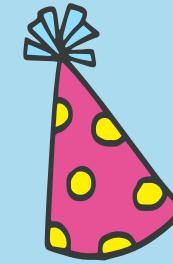

Describe actions that will be happening at a specific period of time in the future.

An action will be ongoing or in progress at that future moment.

positive sentences

This time tomorrow I will be celebrating my birthday

We will be playing soccer during the school break.

Next weekend, we will be hiking in the mountains.

We will be watching a movie while eating popcorn.

By 10 AM tomorrow, I will be finishing my report.

negative sentences

The team will not be practicing outside tomorrow.

I will not be reading that book during the flight.

I will not be attending any workshops this week.

She will not be shopping when the store closes.

She will not be pursuing a new job next year.

questions

Will you be watching the new series on Netflix?

Will you be playing your favorite video game later?

Will she be completing the project by the deadline?

Will they be attending the wedding next weekend?

Will you be learning a new language in the future?

Future Perfect

subject + will have + third form of verb (or -ed)

Before

By the time

From now

After

As soon as

At midnight

in the afternoon

Describe actions that will be completed before a specific time in the future.

The completion of an action by a certain point.

positive sentences

I will have completed my degree by next summer.

I will have run a half marathon before my birthday.

The time you arrive, we will have finished lunch.

I will have painted the room after I buy the supplies.

She will have written her thesis in two months.

negative sentences

She will not have organized the event by next week.

They will not have made a decision by next week.

She will not have arrived at the station by 3 PM.

I will not have read the book after the course ends.

He will not have fixed the car before our trip.

questions

When will they have begun the meeting?

Will she have attended the meetings next week?

Will they have visited Paris by next summer?

Won't we have followed the new guidelines?

Will we have locked the doors before leaving?

Common regular verbs

Infinitive	Future Perfect	Negative	Question
to ask	will have asked	will not have asked	will you have asked...?
to work	will have worked	will not have worked	will he have worked...?
to call	will have called	will not have called	will I have called...?
to use	will have used	will not have used	will they have used...?

Common irregular verbs

Infinitive	Future Perfect	Negative	Question
to be*	will have been	will not have been	will I have been ... ?
to have	will have had	will not have had	will you have had ... ?
to do	will have done	will not have done	will she have done ... ?
to say	will have said	will not have said	will we have said ... ?
to get	will have gotten	will not have gotten	will they have gotten ... ?
to make	will have made	will not have made	will you have made ... ?
to go	will have gone	will not have gone	will he have gone ... ?
to take	will have taken	will not have taken	will you have taken ... ?
to see	will have seen	will not have seen	will I have seen ... ?
to come	will have come	will not have come	will it have come ... ?

The End
Thank You

